The Coventry High School (CHS) is pleased to announce that CHS English Teacher, Shannon Entwistle has won the Connecticut Reading Association's Award of Excellence!

This annual award from the Connecticut Reading Association recognizes a teacher in Connecticut who has made an outstanding contribution to excellence in literacy instruction. Shannon was nominated by one of her colleagues at Coventry High School and will receive a $500.00 grant award to be used to support literacy efforts such as author visits, classroom library material and books.

This information was provided by Coventry High School. For further information, please contact Principal, Joseph Blake at jblake@coventryct.org.
